ČETRT STOLETJA MEDNARODNIH LUTKOVNIH SREČEVANJ V MARIBORU

Poletni lutkovni pristan je Lutkovno gledališče Maribor pod umetniškim vodenjem Tineta Varla začelo prirejati z misljijo na kakovostno lutkovno ponudbo v času poletnih počitnic. Festival se je začel (leta 1990 na Lentu) skromno: z eno tujo in štirinajstimi slovenskimi lutkovnimi predstavami. Že prihodnje leto je število tujih in domačih predstav naraslo skoraj na trideset, z znatnim deležem predstav iz tujine. Hitro se je pričelo tudi sodelovanje s pridelovalci podobnih festivalov po Sloveniji in v tujini. Izmenjava programa je omogočila veliko pestrejši program; gostili smo nekaj izjemno kakovostnih predstav, ki so danes uvrščene v lutkovne antologije: Baročna opera bratov Forman iz Prague, Ali Baba in štirideset razbojnikov Naivnega gledališča iz Liberca, Prinašalci semen Stephena Mottrama iz Velike Britanije, Uglasite si vilico, Hopla, kaj je v bubi in Vse, kar ima perje, leti Gledališče Drak iz Hradca Králové, Flamingo Bar Franka Soenkleja iz Nemčije, Gledališče Buchty a Loutky s Češke z njihovimi predstavami, Stuffed Puppet Theatre z Nizozemske s predstavama Salome in Vampir, gledališče Wilde in Vogel iz Nemčije s Hamletfantasie, Gledališče Meiningen s Kositrnim vojakom, Green Ginger iz Velike Britanije s Frank Einsteinom, špansko gledališče Bambalina s predstavo Kraft, Yael Rasooly iz Izraela s predstavo Paper Cut, Kraljica barv iz Erfurta, švicarsko lutkovno umetnico Margrit Gysin z njenimi predstavami, Gledališče Refleksion z Danske in še veliko drugih.

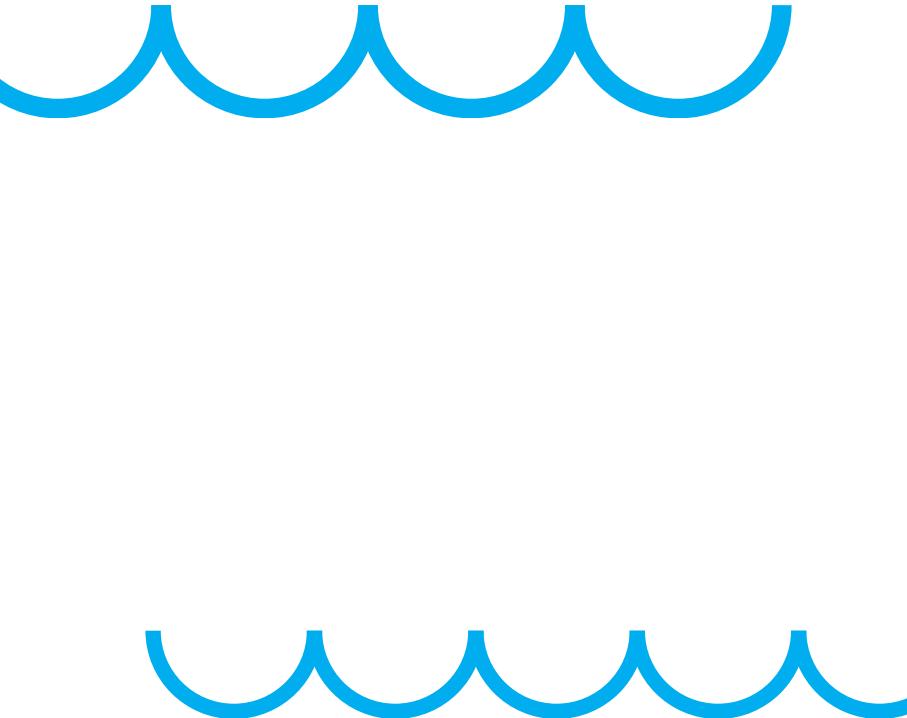

Na festivalu so se zvrstile predstave z vsega sveta: Kitajske, Japonske, Tajske, Združenih držav Amerike, Mehike, Čila, Kolumbije, Brazilije, Irana, Izraela, iz večine evropskih držav, vsako leto pa tudi izbor najboljših slovenskih lutkovnih predstav. Sprva je bila glavnina festivalskega programa namenjena samo predstavam, sčasoma pa se je program širil tudi na spremiščevalne lutkovne dogodke: ustvarjalne delavnice, razstave in lutkovne delavnice, kjer so otroci v enotedenskih delavnicah ustvarili lastno lutkovno predstavo.

Festivalska prizorišča so se selila z Lenta v atrij mariborskega gradu, na vrt kavarne Astoria, na Rotovški trg in končno znova na Lent v novo lutkovno hišo v Minoritih. Ob tem so bile številne predstave na ogled tudi na mestnih ulicah in trgih, v mestnem parku in v Umetnostni galeriji Maribor.

Časovno je festival doživel razvoj od dogajanja skozi vse poletje do bolj zgoščene oblike, ki je živa še danes in zajema avgustovske sobote in vsebinsko najbogatejši zadnji konec tedna, ko je na ogled glavnina festivalskega dogajanja.

A QUARTER OF A CENTURY OF INTERNATIONAL PUPPETRY MEETINGS IN MARIBOR

The original idea at the Puppet Theatre Maribor under artistic director Tine Varl of bringing the Summer Puppet Pier to life was to organize a rich and outstanding variety of puppetry events during the summer holidays. The origins of the festival in 1990 were quite modest, with one foreign and fourteen Slovenian puppetry performances at a single location on Lent. Already the very next year, the number of foreign and domestic performances grew to almost thirty, with a significant share of foreign performances. The organizers of the Summer Puppet Pier also quickly started cooperating with organizers of similar festivals in Slovenia and abroad. The exchange of programme contents allowed for a much more diversified programme and the invitation of several highly-regarded performances that are nowadays part of puppetry anthologies: Opéra Baroque by the Forman Brothers from Prague; Alibaba and the Forty Thieves by The Naive Theatre Liberec; The Seed Carriers by Stephen Mottram from the UK; Do-re-mi-fa Salt above Gold, Wow! Who is it?, and The Flying Babies by the Drak Theatre from Hradec Králové; Flamingo Bar by the German Frank Soenkle; Theatre Buchty a Loutky from the Czech Republic with their performances; Stuffed Puppet Theatre from the Netherlands with their performances Salomé and Vampyr; the German Figurentheater Wilde & Vogel with A Hamlet Fantasy; The Brave Tin Soldier by the Meiningen Theatre; Frank Einstein by Green Ginger from the UK; the Spanish Bambalina theatre group with their performance Kraft, Yael Rasooly from Israel with her performance Paper Cut; The Queen of Colors from Erfurt; the Swiss puppetry artist Margrit Gysin with her performances; the Danish Refleksion Theatre, and many many more.

The festival hosted performances from all over the world, including China, Japan, Thailand, the United States, Mexico, Chile, Colombia, Brazil, Iran, Israel, and most European countries, while also hosting a yearly selection of the best Slovenian puppetry performances. At first, the main focus of the festival was exclusively on performances; the programme gradually expanded to include accompanying puppetry events, such as creative workshops, exhibitions, and puppetry workshops, where children created their very own puppetry performance in one-week workshops.

The festival settings moved from Lent first to the atrium of the Maribor castle, then to the garden of the Astoria coffeehouse and to the Rotovški Square, then finally back to Lent into the new puppet theatre premises in the Minorites. Numerous performances were also staged on city streets and squares, in the city park, and at the Maribor Art Gallery.

Time-wise, the festival gradually transformed from an all-summer event into the more condensed form it holds today, including Saturdays in August and the event-packed last weekend of the month when most of the festival happenings take place.

Babica in dedek že dolgo živita sama, zato si močno želite punčko ali fantka. Nenadoma skozi okno prileti žogica, ki ju nagovori. Oba sta presrečna in odhitita po mleku in kruh za lačno žogico. Ta ostane sama, skozi okno pa jo opazi zmaj Tolovaj. Vabi jo, naj gre z njim, saj se veseli, da se bodo njegovi mali zmajčki lahko igrali z njo. Granny and Grandpa have been living alone for a long time, and would very much like to have a boy or a girl to keep them company. All of a sudden, a ball flies in through the window and speaks to Granny and Grandpa. They are both happy as can be and hurry off to get milk and bread for the hungry ball. As Speckles is left alone, Brigand the dragon notices her through the window. He invites her to go with him so that his little dragons could play with her. Speckles is hesitant at first, but when she accidentally breaks a small pot and fears Granny and Grandpa's anger, she quickly grabs onto the dragon's tail, and off they fly ...

Ena najbolj priljubljenih pravljic je enostavna in preprosta, hkrati pa nenavadna in večplastna. Je zgodba o odrasčanju in prevzemaju odgovornosti. Rdeča kapica ni poslušala izkušenejših od sebe, zato jo je požrl volk. Na srečo pa je mimo prišel lovec in poskrbel za srečen konec, kakršen se za pravljico tudi spodobi.

One of the most popular fairytales of all time, Little Red Riding Hood is a simple and uncomplicated story, though at the same time unusual and multi-layered. It is a story about growing up and accepting responsibility. Little Red Riding Hood never listened to advice from those more experienced than herself, and ended up getting eaten by a wolf. Luckily, a hunter came along and brought a happy ending, as is only proper in a fairytale.

Ah, ti poredni kozlički. Tako dolgo nagajajo, dokler jih ne poje volk. Ampak mama koza jih seveda ne bo pustila v volkovem trebuhu. Kaj pa volk? Utropil se je? Mekeke ... pridite in poglejte. Zgodba govori o žalostnem boksarju, njegovih prijateljih in sovražnikih. Rocky je junak. Morda ni najbolj inteligenten, je pa srčen in poln sanj o svoji zmagi. Kot piše Jiří Kříž v svoji oceni predstave: »Vse je kot prava ameriška drama, a nič nima smisla, celo neumno je, ampak hkrati prekrasno, duhovito in v duhu češke tradicije.« Predstava Rocky IX je gostovala že po vsem svetu: od Japonske, Združenih držav Amerike, Kanade, Mehike in seveda po Evropi.

This is a story about a sad boxer, his friends and his enemies. Rocky is a hero. He might not be the sharpest tool in the shed, but he is valiant and full of dreams of his victory. Jiří Kříž writes in his performance review: »Everything is like a real American drama, nothing makes any sense and it is even quite stupid – yet at the same time, deliciously witty and fully in the spirit of Czech tradition.« Rocky IX made countless guest appearances all over the world, including Japan, the United States, Canada, Mexico, and of course Europe.

Pooh is a performance about a bear – about that one bear who lives in the Hundred Acre Wood and who loves honey more than anything else in the world. Except perhaps his friends, of course: Piglet, Rabbit, and Eeyore the donkey. Together, they solve many mysteries: how to outsmart a swarm of bees, how to lead an elephant into a trap, how to feed the ever-hungry bear, and how to find a gift that would cheer up the big gloomy donkey. Puppet Theatre Pupilla is well-known for its cute, visually innovative performances.

In a castle somewhere far away lives a good, diligent seamstress named Bogdanka who works for a vain countess. The only one keeping Bogdanka company is a little birdie, who one day gives her a pair of scissors that do the cutting and tailoring all by themselves, if only you use the right words. When the countess sees the magical scissors, she snags them and chases Bog-danka out of the castle. But – does the countess know the right words for the magical scissors?

Lutkovna miniaturka iz kovčka za najmlajše temelji na dogodivščinah Turlututuja, lika, ki ga že več let razvija priznani francoski ilustrator in avtor Hervé Tullet. Turlutut je živahan, navihan in prisrčen lik, ki iz slikanice stopi na oder in se takoj izgubi. Na poti iskanja se gledalci znajdejo v domišljajuškem svetu, kjer se začnejo dogajati čudežne gledališke stvari. Otroci postanejo akterji predstave, v kateri z režijskimi, interpretacijskimi in tehničnimi domislicami zaživi lutkovnost v vsej svoji razsežnosti.

Actress

This miniature out-of-the-suitcase puppet performance for the youngest audience is based on the adventures of Turlututu, a cartoon character which the renowned French illustrator and author Hervé Tullet has been working on for years. Turlututu is a lively and adorable little rascal who steps out from the picture book onto the stage and immediately gets lost. As he is trying to find his way, the audience find themselves in a fantasy world where miraculous theatrical things happen. The children themselves become the actors of a performance where directing, interpretational and technical ideas all bring the very essence of puppet theatre to life in all its glory.

We are happy to cooperate with the Maribor Art Gallery during summer holidays, as visual design is a particularly important part of puppet theatre. There can be no puppetry without puppets, without shapes, colours, and materials. And it is precisely shapes, colours, and materials that are at home at the Maribor Art Gallery. A guest puppet performance is held in the Gallery, and our theatre hosts the art workshop.

VOLK IN LAKOTA 5+

Avtor in igralec
Jakub Folvarčný

Avtor je študiral na Finskem in tam dobil navdih za svojo predstavo. Zato ni naključje, da se dogaja temnega zimskega večera in da je volk lačen. Kje bo našel hrano? Seveda znova ni naključje, da se v pravljici znajde Rdeča kapica in potem se pojavijo še kozlički. Lutke so nastale iz predmetov, ki jih je poiskal na ulicah Helsinkov, zato svojo zvrst imenuje »punk lutkovno gledališče«. Predstavo je odigral že v sedmih državah v sedmih različnih jezikih.

THE WOLF AND THE HUNGER 5+

Author and actor
Jakub Folvarčný

Folvarčný studied in Finland, so it comes as no surprise that Finland is also the inspiration from his performance. No coincidence, then, that his performance takes place on a dark winter's evening and that the wolf is hungry. Where will he find food? And the fact that Little Red Riding Hood and the little goats appear in his fairytale is no surprise either, of course. As he manufactured the puppets from objects he found on the streets of Helsinki, he calls his genre »punk puppet theatre«. He already performed his play in seven countries in seven different languages.

Gledalci postanejo lutkarji z vsem svojim telesom in prevzamejo vlogo, ki sicer pripada igralcem. The story of the three little pigs is a well-known tale, but HePp TrUpP's puppet adaptation takes a little twist. The performance is tantalizing, witty, almost without words and with lots of music. The young creators have completed their studies at the University of Theatre and Film Arts in Budapest and established their own little theatre. Even so, they are creatively connected to numerous Hungarian puppet theatres. Their performances have already received a number of awards at domestic and foreign puppetry festivals.

CREATIVE PUPPETRY WORKSHOP

For a number of years now, we have been developing various pedagogical programmes at Puppet Theatre Maribor in order to bring the art of puppetry closer to the children. The 101 Puppet Physics programme leads the young creators right to the core of creative puppetry. In times long past – and times to come – the sky is white, the snow is white, white dreams, white hopes and white disappointments. The wind howling so furiously, carrying the words away into the unknown. The biting air freezes thoughts; these are warmed up at the fireplace to know what was said. Here, in the thick, white hair of mother Anuluk, lived Afun. The performance was inspired by the book Women Who Run with the Wolves by Clarissa Pinkola Estés.

Space installation

Author — Nina Šulin

Although puppets live in performances, they can also lead their lives in a different way in special spaces. As an artist, Nina Šulin is constantly moving between theatre performances as a visual designer – puppets, costumes, stage design – illustrator, mentor and much more. She designs the visual image of the four seasons in the Minoritska Cafe and is a creative contributor in the Studio MaMa project as well as the author of two space installations at the Summer Puppet Pier in 2010 and 2012.

25 GOLDEN STARS

Exhibition of photos from selected award-winning performances at the Summer Puppet Pier

One of the distinct and invaluable features of the Summer Puppet Pier is the children's jury. Each year, this jury rates performances aimed at a children's audience by awarding golden stars. Each of the five jury members gives each performance a rating of one to five stars. Only extraordinary performances receive all 25 stars, and at the end of the festival, only one performance is voted as the receiver of the main award – the Cat from the Bag. The photos will take us on a stroll down memory lane through the performances that have most sincerely addressed the children's audience.
